

Cruise for Credits

with Wycliffe

Summer 2008

Pre-session in Orlando: July 25

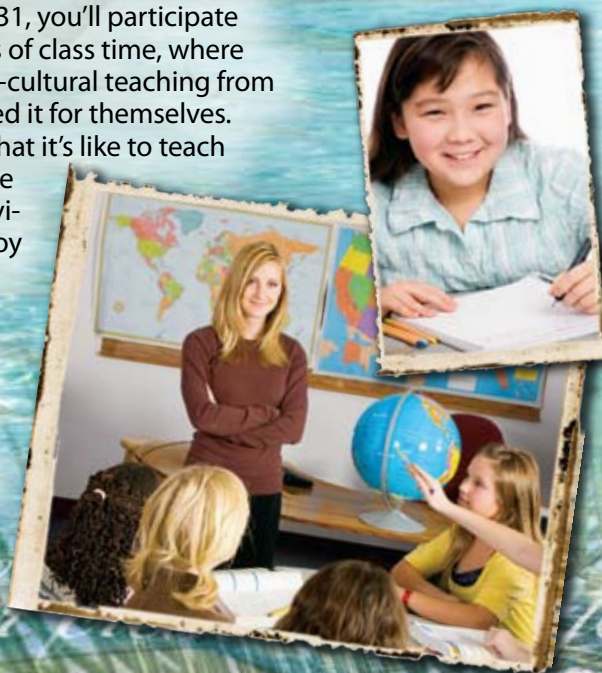

Cruise dates: July 26 - July 31

Want to explore opportunities for teaching missionary kids overseas? Interested in picking up some graduate teaching credit? Need to get away on a cruise? Here's your chance to do all three at once!

Wycliffe Bible Translators is hosting a five-night Caribbean cruise to discover the possibilities! Between July 25 and July 31, you'll participate in approximately 26 hours of class time, where you'll learn all about cross-cultural teaching from people who've experienced it for themselves. You'll also get a taste of what it's like to teach missionary kids as you take part in fun, hands-on activities. In addition, you'll enjoy times of worship, prayer and journaling. Finally, you'll find out about current teaching opportunities, as more than 600 godly teachers are needed to fill classroom and itinerant positions all around the world!

Outside of class, enjoy the Seven Mile Beach, museums, galleries and shops of George Town during a day in Grand Cayman. You'll also be treated to a day and evening in Cozumel, where you can tour its beautiful beaches and colorful bargain-filled shops. You'll even have an opportunity to visit the Tulum Mayan ruins.

Perhaps best of all, teachers will receive three quarter hours of graduate credit from Seattle Pacific University (an accredited institution) for attending sessions. And an additional three quarter hours are available after the cruise for a practicum utilizing material learned during the sessions.

Prices for the cruise begin at just $985.00 (less than the usual cost of normal graduate credits!)

Registration includes:

- Five-night Western Caribbean Cruise
- Graduate credits
- Pre-session and hotel room in Orlando, Florida
